

THE CHALLENGE FOR THE MODERN ENGINEER IN THE ARMED FORCES

Arnold Barks Memorial Christmas Lecture Wed 8th December 2010

An IMechE Wessex Region event presented by the Salisbury Area Committee in conjunction with the IET's Dorset & South Wilts Branch

Chief of the Air Staff, Air Chief Marshal Sir Stephen Dalton

Sir Stephen will speak on the subject of "The Challenge for the Modern Engineer in the Armed Forces". Whilst being a pilot, Sir Stephen originally graduated from the University of Bath as an aeronautical engineer. Following the Strategic Defence & Security Review (SDSR), he will give a candid view of the future of engineers and engineering in the Armed Services in the short, medium and long term.

Venue: Salisbury Arts Centre, Bedwin Street, Salisbury, SP1 3UT

The lecture will be preceded by tea/coffee from 6.30pm and followed by a high quality drinks & canapés reception afterwards.

IMechE, IET & RAeS members and guests are all welcome.

Spaces are limited so book early to avoid disappointment.

Tickets: available at £10/head. Please download a booking form from: <http://nearyou.imeche.org/uk/wess/>
