

ETRURIA INDUSTRIAL MUSEUM

Heritage Open Days Events at Etruria

Saturday 10th September 11.00am to 4.30pm - Potters' Mill 'in steam' and Vintage Stationary Engine Rally

Sunday 11th September 11.00am to 4.30pm - Potters' Mill 'in steam' and Classic Vehicle Rally

Entry to the Rally, Museum and Mill FREE in support of Heritage Open Days.

Guided tours £8 per adult subject to availability. Under 16 free when with a paying adult

Sunday 11th September 10.00am Exploring James Brindley's Narrow Canals

Walk lead by Andy Perkin of the Potteries Heritage Society

Pre-book online: potteries.org.uk/exploring-brindleys-canals-book

Wednesday 14th September 2.00pm to 4.00pm

Talk: A Century of Innovation in the Ceramics Industry by Phil Rowley

Wednesday 14th September 7.00pm to 9.00pm

Talk and Tour: Bedson, Brindley and Watt a Trio That Transformed the Pottery Industry
by Bernard Lovatt

Thursday 15th September 2.30pm to 4.30pm

Talk and Tour: Bedson, Brindley and Watt a Trio That Transformed the Pottery Industry
by Bernard Lovatt

The talks are free in support of Heritage Open Days.

For the Bedson, Brindley and Watt talks the numbers are limited to 25 so please book on

<https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/397788755877>

Refreshments and Toilets

Car park and entrance: Etruria Industrial Museum, Etruria Vale Road, Etruria, Stoke-on-Trent. ST1 4RB

www.etruriamuseum.org.uk

Limited access to the Mill for those with mobility difficulties