

Europe
Switzerland

HOW STADLER BUILDS TRAINS

This year Stadler will be celebrating 75 years of rolling stock manufacturing. In 1989 the company employed 18 staff on its Bussnang manufacturing site and turned over 4.5MCHF. By 2006 Stadler were employing 1100 personnel with revenues of 600MCHF. Ten years later the company is now global and employs 7000 people.

We will take advantage of the official open day to visit the manufacturing facilities in Bussnang. Both members and non-members are welcome.

Saturday, 20th May 10:15am

Bussnang Railway Station
9565 Bussnang
Switzerland

For more information and registration, please contact:

Stefano Mastropietro
swisschair@imechenearyou.org

Improving the world through engineering